How can I determine how many minutes I have used each month?

You will receive a voice prompt when you initiate a call telling you how many minutes you have to the destination you are calling. You will also receive a voice prompt when you have one minute remaining on your International Calling Plan. Your allowance resets according to your billing cycle.