What happens to my trade-in credit if my service is disconnected?

If all lines on your account are disconnected, your trade-in credits will be paused, not canceled. If you reconnect your service, your remaining credits will resume on your next bill.